

The Newport Area Environment Group (NAEG) is a voluntary community based initiative, in Newport, Pembrokeshire.

The aims and objectives include:

- Fostering understanding of local, national and global environmental sustainability
- Thereby seeking to achieve sustainable environmental improvements locally with the ultimate purpose of creating a carbon neutral area
- Facilitating groups to set up initiatives in local food growing, renewable energy etc to address the twin challenges of peak fossil fuel and climate change.

We are actively engaged in all manner of topics related to improving our community and seeking a more sustainable environment and ecology to pass on to future generations. Read more about us by clicking About Us .
