The Newport Area Environment Group (NAEG) is a voluntary community based initiative, in Newport, Pembrokeshire.

The aims and objectives include:

- Fostering understanding of local, national and global environmental sustainability
- Thereby seeking to achieve sustainable environmental improvements locally with the ultimate purpose of creating a carbon neutral area
  - Facilitating groups to set up initiatives in local food growing, renewable energy etc to
- address the twin challenges of peak fossil fuel and climate change.

We are actively engaged in all manner of topics related to improving our community and seeking a more sustainable environment and ecology to pass on to future generations. Read more about us by clicking About Us.
